HOLDERS OF LANDS

Jubel has a house in ESSECESTRA [Exeter]¹ which pays the customary due of the time of King Edward, that is, 8 pence a year.

fol. 335.

THE LAND OF RALF DE POMARIA IN DEVENESIRA²

Ralf de Pomaria has a manor called LIDFORD (Exch. Tideford) [Lidford]³ which Wadels held T.R.E., and it paid geld for $\frac{1}{2}$ ferding. One plough can till it and it pays 3 shillings a year. Roger holds it of Ralf.

Ralf has a manor called WYCA (Exch. Wiche) [Week]⁴ which Alward held T.R.E., and it paid geld for $\frac{1}{2}$ virgate. This 5 ploughs can till. Thereof R[alf] has 1 ferling and 1 plough in demesne, and the villeins the other ferling and 2 ploughs. There R[alf] has 4 villeins, 3 bordars, 2 serfs, 30 beasts, 2 swine, 38 sheep, 2 acres of wood(land), 30 acres of meadow and 12 acres of pasture. Worth 50 shillings a year; when [Ralf] received it it was worth 40 shillings.

Ralf has a manor called DUNEWINUSDONA (Exch. Dunewinesdone) [Dunsdon]⁵ which Tovi held T.R.E., and it paid geld for 3 virgates. These 12 ploughs can till. Of 2 (of these) virgates Ralf has 1 in demesne and 2 ploughs, and the villeins have 1 virgate and 3 ploughs. On these 2 virgates R[alf] has 6 villeins, 7 bordars, 9 serfs, 35 beasts, 10 swine, 40 sheep, 10 goats, 40 acres of meadow and 60 of pasture.

And the third aforesaid virgate which belonged to the aforesaid manor T.R.E. has been taken away. The count of Mortain holds it.⁶ This third virgate 2 ploughs can till. This manor is worth 100 shillings without the virgate which fol. 335b.

³ Probably Lidford in Lifton hundred, but see Trans. Devon Assoc. xxxvi, 350.

⁵ Dunsdon in Blacktorington hundred. See fol. 496b.

the count of Mortain holds; when Ralf received it it was worth 4 pounds.

Ralf has a manor called ALYWYNELANCAUELE (Exch. Alwineclancauele) []⁷ which Letwyn (Exch. Leduin) held T.R.E., and it paid geld for $\frac{1}{2}$ virgate and $\frac{1}{2}$ ferding. This 2 ploughs can till. There R[alf] has 1 plough, and the villeins 1; also 2 villeins, 4 bordars, 1 serf, 10 beasts, 12 sheep, 20 acres of meadow, and 30 acres of pasture. Jersey. They are of German extraction. William Van Hise came to Butler County about 1800, and was one of the pioneers. He was township trustee for several terms. He was a prosperous farmer, and raised a family of six sons and two daughters. Three sons are now living. Mr. Van Hise died about 1853. Nehemiah Van Hise remained on the home place until his marriage, which happened on the 28th of November, 1848. He was then united to Elizabeth Aydelotte, daughter of James A. Aydelotte. She was born in 1824. Mr. and Mrs. Van Hise are the parents of four children, of whom two are living. Luella May was the wife of E. Moore. She died May 28, 1880, aged twenty-three. Anna Laurie died February 8, 1880. Benjamin F. is a resident of Hamilton County, and James is still at home. After marriage he continued on his father's place for three years; then removing to Pisgah and engaging in the manufacture of brooms, a business that he conducted for some eighteen years. He then entered upon mercantile business in Pisgah, which he has since carried on, doing an extensive trade. He keeps a general stock of goods. Mr. Van Hise was township treasurer one term of two years, about 1864. He and his wife are members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

George Vinnedge was born in Fairfield Township, November 30, 1809, being the younger son of John and Rosanna (Moore) Vinnedge. John Vinnedge was a native of Pennsylvania, where he was born in 1774, on the 4th of April. He accompanied the expedition of General Wayne to the Indian grounds at the north, and was packhorse-master from Fort Hamilton to Fort Greenville. After the defeat of the Indians he remained in Hamilton, where he was married in June, 1793. This is the earliest marriage in the limits of this county known to the editor of this book. He settled on the place now farmed by Thomas Van Cleaf, in 1798, and lived there till 1850. He raised a family of eight children, of whom but four survive—two sons and two daughters. In 1850 he removed south of Hamilton, in Fairfield Township. He was a justice of the peace for many years, and was an active Democrat in politics. He was a member of the Methodist Church. He died in August, 1868, in his ninety-fifth year. George was educated in the common schools in Fairfield Township, and was brought up to farming. He remained at home until he was twenty-four.

In 1831 Mr. Vinnedge was married to Miss Malinda Robbins, and has had five children—three daughters and two sons. Three daughters are now living, residents of Butler County. They are Mary R., widow of Isaac Skillman, living in Milford; Nancy R., wife of Frank Jones, living in Hamilton; and Julia W., wife of Johnston Gerard, living in Union Township. The first Mrs. Vinnedge died in 1875, and he was again married, April, 1875. His wife was Mrs. Katy Magness, daughter of Henry Spethman. Mr. Vinnedge has nearly always been engaged in farming. In 1839 he purchased a farm on the Springdale Pike, where he resided until coming to Union Township in 1856, locating on the place now occupied by Johnston Gerard, a short distance north of Port Union. He afterwards removed to his present home, a short distance south of Port Union, where he owns eighty-three acres, having on the old place one hundred and fifty acres. He was a director in the infirmary board some nine years. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

William Townsend, the son of Daniel Townsend and Mary Hamlin, was born in Devonshire, England, May 1828. He was employed upon a farm until coming to America in the Spring of 1850. From New York he proceeded to Cincinnati direct, being a resident of Hamilton County for some ten years, working upon a farm. He was married August 14, 1860, to Henrietta Craig, daughter of John Frederick Craig, an old settler in Texas, then the name of a part of Cincinnati, who assisted in building the first house in that part of the city. Mrs. Townsend was born in Hamilton County, February 8, 1837. Mr. and Mrs. Townsend are the parents of seven children. Mary Ella was born May 8, 1862; Sarah Anna, January 12, 1865; William Frederick, August 18, 1867; Benjamin Franklin, May 3, 1870; Ida May, June 21, 1872; Grace Edith, January 22, 1874, and Theodore Albert, May 20, 1877.

After marriage he came to Butler County, in 1860, locating in Union Township. After four years in Union Township he went to Fairfield Township, where he conducted the Windisch farm for twelve years. It was the farm formerly owned by R. M. Shoemaker. In the Spring of 1877 Mr. Townsend purchased the farm formerly owned by E. Beckley, consisting of one hundred and sixty-five acres of fine land, with residence and ample buildings. He had no start in life, and has wrought his destiny himself. He and his wife are worthy members of the Methodist Church at Port Union.

W. L. Van Hise was born in Union Township August 5, 1840, and is the only son of William W. Van Hise and Jane M. Truesdale. She is from New Jersey, and is of German and English extraction. W. L. Van Hise began as a clerk, when fifteen years of age, and in 1863 began business in Westchester. After three years he went to St. Louis, where he remained three years. He then came to Cincinnati, where he was in a wholesale grocery for three years, and then returned to Westchester. In March 1879, he entered into partnership with James Schenck, in the firm of Schenck & Co. He keeps a general store, and does an extensive and increasing trade. He is also a grain buyer. Mr. Van Hise was the township treasurer for two terms, beginning in 1863. He was married December 3, 1863, to Miss Rachel A. Van Hise, daughter of James Van Hise. Their children are Nellie, born December 3, 1864, and Clarence L., born February 5, 1872. They are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

After the defeat of the Indians he remained in Hamilton, where he was married in June, 1790. This is the earliest marriage in the limits of this county known to the editor of this book. He settled on the place now farmed by Thomas Van Cleaf, in 1798, and lived there till 1859. He raised a family of eight children, of whom but four survive—two sons and two daughters. In 1850 he removed south of Hamilton, in Fairfield Township. He was a justice of the peace for many years, and was an active Democrat in politics. He was a member of the Methodist Church. He died in August, 1868, in his ninety-fifth year. George was educated in the common schools in Fairfield Township, and was brought up to farming. He remained at home until he was twenty-four.

In 1831 Mr. Vinnedge was married to Miss Malinda Robbins, and has had five children—three daughters and two sons. Three daughters are now living, residents of Butler County. They are Mary R., widow of Isaac Skillman, living in Milford; Nancy R., wife of Frank Jones, living in Hamilton; and Julia W., wife of Johnston Gerard, living in Union Township. The first Mrs. Vinnedge died in 1875, and he was again married, April, 1875. His wife was Mrs. Katy Magnus, daughter of Henry Spelman. Mr. Vinnedge has nearly always been engaged in farming. In 1829 he purchased a farm on the Springdale Pike, where he resided until coming to Union Township in 1856, locating on the place now occupied by Johnston Gerard, a short distance north of Port Union. He afterwards removed to his present home, a short distance south of Port Union, where he owns eighty-three acres, having on the old place one hundred and fifty acres. He was a director in the infirmity board some nine years. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

William Townsend, the son of Daniel Townsend and Mary Hamlin, was born in Devonshire, England, May 1828. He was employed upon a farm until coming to America in the Spring of 1850. From New York he proceeded to Cincinnati direct, being a resident of Hamilton County for some ten years, working upon a farm. He was married August 14, 1860, to Henrietta Craig, daughter of John Frederick Craig, an old settler in Texas, then the name of a part of Cincinnati, who assisted in building the first house in that part of the city. Mrs. Townsend was born in Hamilton County, February 8, 1837. Mr. and Mrs. Townsend are the parents of seven children. Mary Ella was born May 8, 1862; Sarah Anna, January 12, 1865; William Frederick, August 18, 1867; Benjamin Franklin, May 3, 1870; Ida May, June 21, 1872; Grace Edith, January 22, 1874, and Theodore Albert, May 20, 1877.

After marriage he came to Butler County, in 1860, locating in Union Township. After four years in Union Township he went to Fairfield Township, where he conducted the Windisch farm for twelve years. It was the farm formerly owned by R. M. Shoemaker. In the Spring of 1877 Mr. Townsend purchased the farm formerly owned by E. Beckley, consisting of one hundred and sixty-five acres of fine land, with residences and ample buildings. He had no start in life, and has wrought his destiny himself. He and his wife are worthy members of the Methodist Church at Port Union.

W. L. Van Hise was born in Union Township August 5, 1840, and is the only son of William W. Van Hise and Jane M. Truesdale. She is from New Jersey, and is of German and English extraction. W. L. Van Hise began as a clerk, when fifteen years of age, and in 1863 began business in Westchester. After three years he went to St. Louis, where he remained three years. He then came to Cincinnati, where he was in a wholesale grocery for three years, and then returned to Westchester. In March 1879, he entered into partnership with James Schenck, in the firm of Schenck & Co. He keeps a general store, and does an extensive and increasing trade. He is also a grain buyer. Mr. Van Hise was the township treasurer for two terms, beginning in 1863. He was married December 3, 1863, to Miss Rachel A. Van Hise, daughter of James Van Hise. Their children are Nellie, born December 3, 1864, and Charles L., born February 5, 1872. They are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Baptismal records show another John born to John and Richard. He was baptised 18 Feb 1665. This son evidently died, as their next son was also named John. These are the only two children shown for them in the baptismal records.

There were two John's listed in widecombe burial records. One died in 1744, the other in 1738. Either could belong to this John.

In widecombe burial records there is a Jane listed who was buried 23 Sep 1717. There were no further baptismal records listed for John and Jane, so this may be Jane woodly Townsend who died in 1717.

Children of JOHN^3 and JANE (WOODLY) TOWNSEND were as follows:

34. ANNA⁸ TOWNSEND, (DANIEL⁷, JAMES⁶, JOHN⁵, JOHN⁴, JOHN³, JOHN², JOHN¹), born 19 Oct 1825 Ashburton, Devonshire, England, christened 15 Nov 1825 Ashburton, Devonshire, England; died 1864 Ohio. She was married 29 Jul 1844, Widecombe-in-the-Moor, Devonshire, England to WILLIAM JOHN HANNAFORD, son of Robert Hannaford and of Jane Clampitt.

Ann is probably buried near Mt. Carmel, Clermont County, Ohio. The family was living in this area when John married Martha Sandy Boyles in 1865.

John and Ann were living in the Parish of Widecombe, on the east side of the Dartmoor Forest, close to Ashburton in 1845 and 1848. By 1849 they were recorded as "of Lydford", the village just west of Dartmoor. The Parish of Lydford, however, covers Dartmoor itself, so John and Ann may actually have lived on the moor not too far from Widecombe. John was a stonemason, according to Eugene Hannaford, a grandson.

In late 1849 John and Ann with children Joseph, Mary Jane, John, William and Ann's brother William Townsend sailed for America, arriving in March 1850. They first settled in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they were listed in the 1850 Hamilton County, Mill Creek Township federal census. Listed with them was a Peter Hannaford age 20, Harriet age 5 and John age 4. These latter three have yet to be identified but it is assumed they were nephews and a niece of John's and may have come to America with John and Ann.

Peter moved to Hillsboro, Highland County, Ohio, where he married Julia Curd. A great grandson is Paul Hannaford who is Rector of Saint Michael's In The Hills Episcopal Church in Toledo, Ohio.

John moved to Mt. Carmel, Clermont County, Ohio, where Ann probably died. They also lived for a short period of time in Highland County, Ohio, near Hillsboro. John married Martha Sandy Boyles 5 October 1865 in Clermont County. They were married by William Young, M.G. By 1865 John and Martha had moved to White County, Illinois, where other English families had settled. After 1880 John and Martha moved to Knight's Prairie Township of Hamilton County, Illinois, where John died from typhoid fever in 1889.

John was born in Widecombe-in-the-Moor Parish of Devonshire, England. He came to America with his parents when he was four and one half years old. They settled in Cincinnati, Ohio, and later in Clermont County, Ohio. John enlisted in Ohio's Co.E, 5th Cavalry during the Civil War, serving from 13 Feb 1865 to 30 Oct 1865. John was a Republican and a member of the Elm Grove Presbyterian Church, later attending Cherry Grove Methodist Church and Ellen Moore Methodist Church in Fairfield. John was a farmer.

The Wayne County Press reported that John built a new home and cleared 8 acres on the farm of Isaac Cravens. Isaac was the brother of Emma. In 1880 John traded 40 acres of swamp land in Wayne County for a mule worth about $40. John and Emma raised their family in Leech Township of Wayne County, Illinois. Robert Guthrie and family moved from Illinois by train in February 1908, with children Verta, Alice and Eugene, to live on a farm 5 miles NW of Medford, Oklahoma. Children born on the farm were Vernon, Alberta, Gertrude, Wayne, Lucille and Clifford. The following are recollections of life on the farm by Alberta:
"wheat harvest was the big event on a large farm where

Printed 3 Mar 2004

wheat was the main crop. The wheat was cut, bound, and shocked using horse-drawn equipment. Mother's uncle John Meritt arrived with his threshing machine and a cook shack on a wagon, where our cousins Sue and Goldia Meritt did the cooking for the threshing crew.

We had several horses, a pony, hogs and a few sheep, plus turkeys and chickens. I recall learning to milk a cow and wash the cream separator at an early age. Cream was sold to a produce house in Medford.

In September, Dad would drive the spring wagon to an orchard near Belle Plaine, Kansas, to bring back a load of apples, so we always had an apple in our school lunches. In 1917, Dad with our school teacher, Earl Mott, traveled by train to Kansas City, Missouri, to buy our Ford car. Mr. Mott drove the car back home.

Uncle William T. Hannaford lived with our family and helped Dad on the farm for a year. He was a young man at the time and enjoyed playing baseball on Sunday afternoons with friends, who knew him as Bill Hannaford. (Uncle William visited us several times in later years as did Grandma and Grandpa and aunts Clara, Ollie and Mary. We missed knowing cousins in Illinois.)"

In 1921, the family moved into Medford where Dad operated his Transfer & Storage business until he retired in 1950. Children born in Medford were Maxine, Helen, Patricia and

Bruce.

Dad was an Elder at the Congregational Church and a member of the choir. He was a member of the Odd Fellows, a humanitarian organization that was most active in the early part of the century. The family attended Thanksgiving and Christmas parties at the Lodge in the 1920's.

Dad loved people; he enjoyed talking to friends or to total strangers, but he was a good listener--especially if someone had a good front-porch story to tell. He wrote letters to the children, usually including conversations he had had with someone they knew. Every year, he wrote a long letter to the Wayne County Press in Fairfield, Illinois, for their "Wayne County Wanderers" edition.

A high point for Mother and Dad came in the late 1940's when they traveled by train to California to visit children there. Dad was so oversome on seeing the ocean for the first time that he walked into the surf with his shoes on (and he returned home with a jar of ocean water!). He enjoyed his first ride in an airplane while they were in California, when Helen's husband Hal took him up in a single engine plane.

Emma Bell was born 16 Jun 1881 in Burnt Prairie, White County, Illinois. She died 19 Oct 1966 in Caldwell, Sumner County, Kansas and is buried in the Rosemond Cemetery in Medford, Oklahoma.

Already an excellent seamstress before her marriage, Mother made her own wedding dress, and over the years made clothing for most of her thirteen children. She was known especially for her biscuits and yeast breads: when the Daughters of Plymouth at the Congregational Church served dinner for the Lions Club, she was always requested to bring the hot rolls. Every fall, Mother and Alice's future mother-in-law (Mrs. Bryson) prepared oyster soup from fresh oysters for the Grange Oyster Suppers near our home.

She always had a large garden, even after moving to town, and canned fruit, vegetables, and sausage. For a large family, she bought flour in 100 pound cloth bags, sugar in 50 pound sacks, and honey in 5 gallon cans. One of her many skills was soap-making, an activity that followed the hog-butcherer. She was up and dressed early; no one ever saw her in pajamas or a robe. Standing 5'1", she was soft spoken and never raised her voice.

Mother was always concerned about others, never turning away a hobo needing food. Alberta relates that she took her with her as a small child to stay overnight with a palsied widow who lived about a mile from our home on the farm. Mother always found the time to listen to anyone needing help.

TOWNSEND

Alberta relates the following:

I accompanied Mother on her first plane trip to Oak Ridge TN to visit Bruce and family, flying on a 4-engine plane to Nashville, where we transferred to a 2-engine plane for the remainder of the flight. Bruce, on our arrival, asked Mother how she enjoyed the aerial views of Tennessee: her reply was 'I couldn't see because Alberta was sitting by the window'. My thought had been to protect her from knowing that we were then on a 2-engine plane (never could fool Mother).

Bruce later questioned the return date on the ticket, which was when I had to return from vacation. Mother noted it was not necessary that she return on that date, and later returned on the plane alone. In later years she went by plane alone to visit family in California.

The hard work and sacrifices of Mother and Dad make the children "The Lucky Thirteen".

John and Ann were living in the Parish of Widecombe, on the east side of the Dartmoor Forest, close to Ashburton in 1845 and 1848.
